GENERAL BOOKING

- 1. If we want to book a vessel what is the procedure?
After obtaining details of your requirements we will send through our confirmation. A $1000 deposit is required within 14 days to secure the booking. Balance of payment is required 14 days prior to the charter.
- 2. Do we get a refund of the deposit if we cancel?
If a cancellation is made:
More than 60 days before the date of the cruise the deposit paid will be refunded minus a $300 management fee.
Between 14-60 days, there will be a loss of deposit.
Less than 14 days, the full invoice will be non-refundable.
- 3. Are there any other costs involved?
Most wharves in the harbour incur a wharfage fee which will be added to your charter cost. Any optional extras provided are at additional cost.
- 4. Are there Terms and Conditions?
Yes – we ask that you read, sign and return the Terms and Conditions prior to the charter.
- 5. Is there a Security Bond?
Yes, we require a credit card number and expiration date to be held on file. It will not be charged unless there is damage to the vessel. If you do not have a credit card, we will accept $1,000 cash which will be returned to you after the charter, provided our Terms and Conditions are adhered to.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- 1. Can we inspect the vessels?
Yes, we encourage clients to inspect the vessels prior to booking.
- 2. Where and when can we inspect the vessels?
Vessels can be inspected at our boatyard in Berrys Bay. We suggest you email/phone to arrange a suitable time to ensure the vessel is available. Inspection times are 08:30 – 16:30 Monday to Friday. Weekend inspection are only possible when crew are at the boatyard preparing for a charter and times are very specific – the crew will not have a great deal of time to spend with you as they have other duties to perform in preparation for the charter – most questions should be taken up with the office staff during the week.
- 3. How long are the charters?
A minimum of 2 hours is charged, but you can charter one of our vessels for as little or as long as you require.
- 4. What does the charter time include?
The charter time begins at the first pick up and ends at the last set down.
- 5. Can the time be extended?
Additional time may be available at short notice; however, this is always at the Master's discretion and availability of the vessel and crew.
- 6. Who is responsible for providing bins, etc for rubbish? Do customer have to provide bins, etc for our rubbish and do they have to take the rubbish off the vessel at the end of the charter?
Rosman Cruises is responsible for providing bins, etc for the rubbish and will take the rubbish off of the vessel at the end of the charter.

No, guests are not allowed to swim off of the vessel. However, we can go alongside some of Sydney's lovely wharfs to allow guests to swim there.

BEVERAGES: BYO AND LICENSED VESSELS

1. Can charterers supply their own drinks?
Yes. One of our vessels is entirely BYO; Regal. However, charterers may BYO on Proclaim and Royale at $150 p/h BYO surcharge (minimum 2 hours, this includes 1 bar tender). Additional staff at $60 an hour are required for 100-149 guests, & a 3rd for 150+ guests. Proclaim and Royale are licenced venues and have a full bar. Bartenders on Regal can be supplied at a cost of $75 p/h (minimum 2 hours).
2. Where do charterers load on drinks for BYO vessels?
For BYO vessels, we encourage charterers to bring their drinks down to our boatyard at Berrys Bay, a maximum of 5 working days prior to the charter during office hours (M-F 08:00-16:00). Our staff will load the drinks onto the vessel and put them in tubs with ice; the cost of ice is $5/5kg bag. Alternately, drinks can be loaded at the first pick-up at the designated wharf (if you do not want the drinks to be loaded with your guests we can make the first pick-up a different location than your guests then proceed to pick up your guests).
3. Can charterers load on drinks from the Rosman Cruises boatyard?
No, only our crew can load items onto the vessel at our boatyard due to safety, security & insurance issues.
4. Will the BYO vessel go back to the loading wharf after the charter?
If you would like the vessel to go back to a designated wharf, please let us know and we will build it into your charter time. Otherwise, the vessel will go back to Berrys Bay. At Berrys Bay drinks will be unloaded and stored in our locked shed, all care will be taken, but we do not take responsibility. You may pick up the leftover drinks on the first working day after your charter between 08:30 – 16:00.

CATERING

1. Can Rosman Cruises provide catering?
No, we do not have our own catering team. However, we do have a list of preferred caterers who are familiar with our vessels & are permitted to load & board at our boatyard.
2. Can charterers bring their own catering or do they have to use Rosman Cruises preferred caterers?
We can certainly help with our preferred catering; however, you are able to self-cater on any of our vessels if preferred.
3. What is on board if the customer supplies their own catering?
The vessel is hired on a bareboat basis. Therefore, you would have to provide everything yourself e.g. plates, cutlery, etc. Proclaim is the only vessel with a galley. It has a large bench area and a sink.
4. Where do charterers load self-catering?
Caterers are welcome to load at Berrys Bay where the crew will take delivery of the catering and load it on board. Alternately, catering can be loaded at the first pick-up at the designated wharf (if you do not want the catering to be loaded with your guests, we can make the first pick-up a different location than your guests, then proceed to pick up your guests).
5. Will the vessel go back to the loading wharf after the charter?
If you would like the vessel to go back to a designated wharf, please let us know and we will build it into your charter time. Otherwise, the vessel will go back to Berrys Bay. Caterers are welcome to unload at Berrys Bay after the event; we cannot store catering equipment overnight.
6. Does Rosman Cruises have a microwave on board?
No, but if required, you are welcome to bring one. There is plenty of household power on board.

- 8. Can tablecloths be provided?
White tablecloths can be hired at request, at a cost of $10 each.

ENTERTAINMENT

- 1. Can Rosman Cruises arrange entertainment?
Yes. A variety of quality entertainment can be provided for any budget.
- 2. Can I provide my own music?
All vessels are set up with aux cable connectivity to play background music. Please bring along a fully charged music device (smart phone, iPod, etc) with a playlist set up to last the duration of the charter.
- 3. Does Rosman Cruises have speakers and/or equipment that we can use on the vessels?
Yes, we have speakers for hire. You can provide your own speakers and equipment too. There is plenty of household power to plug your equipment into.
- 4. Where do charterers load music?
Musicians/DJs are welcome to load their gear at Berrys Bay, but please note that they will not be allowed into the yard due to safety, security & insurance issues; the crew will load any gear on board. Alternately, musicians/DJs can be loaded at the first pick-up at the designated wharf (if you do not want the music gear to be loaded with your guests, we can make the first pick-up a different location than your guests, then proceed to pick up your guests).

DECORATING

- 1. Can charterers decorate the vessel?
Yes, decorations maybe dropped off at the boatyard with instructions for the crew to follow. Alternately, decorators can be loaded at the first pick-up at the designated wharf (if you do not want the decorations to be loaded with your guests, we can make the first pick-up a different location than your guests, then proceed to pick up your guests). To maintain the condition of our historic vessels, we have restrictions - only blue tac and string may be used - no sticky-tape, thumb tacks, etc.
- 2. Can charterers use candles?
No. Open flame is not permitted.

WHARVES

- 1. What wharves can Rosman Cruises pick up from?
Most public wharves in the main harbour area.
- 2. Is there a fee to use the wharves?
Most wharves incur a wharfage fee of $60 per berthing.
- 3. Can Rosman Cruises pick up from one wharf and set down at another?
Yes, there is not a requirement to pick-up & set down at the same wharf.
- 4. Does Rosman Cruises book the wharves?
There are some wharves that require advanced booking, which we book and apply the wharf fee to your invoice. There are other wharves that do not require advanced booking, however we have to berth around the Sydney Ferries timetable.

- 5. How long can Rosman Cruises stay at a wharf?
We are only allowed to be at a wharf for 15 minutes. We are not allowed to place back-to-back bookings at a wharf.
- 6. Are some wharves easier for wheelchair access than others?
Yes, pontoon wharves make access easier.
- 7. Can Rosman Cruises pick up or set down in Manly?
Due to vessel survey conditions we are unable to go out past the heads and therefore cannot go to or from Middle Harbour or Manly with passengers.

TRANSPORT (NOT A CHARTER)

- 1. Can charterers just book one-way transport?
Yes.
- 2. Can a short cruise be included during the transport?
Yes, once the pick-up and set down times are determined the time in between is allocated for transport time and any other cruising requested.
- 3. My function is on an island. Would it cost more to do several trips during the event in case some people do not want to stay for the full function?
No, our rates are calculated on a time basis not the number of trips. The only additional cost would be for wharf fees if they are applicable.
- 4. My event is being planned on an island - is Rosman Cruises able to transport the equipment, etc to set up the function prior to the guests arriving?
Yes, we can provide transport to bump in/bump out. However, Rosman crew may not be used to set up equipment - their responsibility lies with the vessel.
- 5. Is it possible to transport 500+ guests to a function venue?
Yes, we can either do 2 trips on the one vessel or provide 2 vessels. With all 3 of our vessels combined, we can comfortably carry 510 passengers for transport with a maximum of 650 passengers.

WEDDINGS

- 1. Can the wedding ceremony be conducted on the vessel?
Yes. Our crew are very familiar with the best locations to conduct the ceremony.
- 2. Is it possible to drop the marriage celebrant at a wharf after the ceremony?
Yes, in most cases an additional wharf fee will be applied.
- 3. Does Rosman Cruises provide wedding transport with a short cruise after the wedding ceremony to the reception venue?
Yes, it is an excellent option to fill in the time whilst the bridal party are busy with the photographer and a great way to showcase Sydney Harbour to interstate and overseas visitors.
- 4. Is it possible to pick up the bridal party after they finish with photographers so they can join their guests on board?
Yes, all we would need to know is a time and which wharf.
- 5. Can drinks be served to the guests during the wedding transport?
Yes. We have BYO and licensed vessels. For a copy of the licenced vessels beverage list, please contact one of our friendly staff.
- 6. The customer is getting married in a park/island - is it possible to have a wet weather option should it rain?
Yes. A pre-arranged option can be organised. A contact number for the Operations Manager will be provided and a cut off time will be discussed.
